5. Please respond to the following question. Your response should contain at least 150 words. Attach separate sheet(s) of paper to this application with your typed response.

Q. “People helping people” is the philosophy that drives credit unions. Following college graduation, how do you plan to “give back” or use your knowledge to help make lives better within the community you live and/or work? (For example, volunteer to build a home for Habitat for Humanity to provide shelter for a homeless family.) Please explain the value and importance of your community service work, list goals/objectives and how you plan to achieve them.
